ADMISSION CONDITIONS FOR THE 2025/2026 ACADEMIC YEAR
- STUDIES IN ENGLISH -

1. Students enrolled in the integrated academic studies of veterinary medicine in English at the Faculty of Veterinary Medicine, University of Belgrade, are admitted exclusively as self-financed students throughout their studies.
2. Self-financed students, upon enrollment for a particular academic year, must select subjects according to the study program to achieve at least 37 ECTS credits, unless fewer than 37 ECTS credits remain to complete the study program. In any case, a self-financed student must enroll in at least 37 ECTS credits per academic year. This total includes credits for carried-over subjects.
3. To be admitted to the next year of study (second, third, fourth, fifth, or sixth year), a student must enroll in at least 37 ECTS credits from higher-year subjects.
4. When selecting subjects, students must first choose all subjects from the first and second years to be eligible to select subjects from the third year, and must choose all subjects from the first, second, and third years to select subjects from the fourth year, and so on. (Rules on Integrated Academic Studies of the Faculty of Veterinary Medicine, No. 01-290, dated March 22, 2023, Article 26).
5. A student who does not pass an exam in a mandatory subject by the beginning of the next academic year must re-enroll in the same subject. A student who fails an elective subject may re-enroll in the same elective subject or choose another.
6. In the 2025/2026 academic year, students may enroll in as many new ECTS credits as they earned in the previous academic year.
7. Students granted a status of academic leave are not entitled to take exams or attend classes during the leave period (Statute of the University of Belgrade, Article 100, No. 247/2023).

TUITION FEES FOR THE 2025/2026 ACADEMIC YEAR
- STUDIES IN ENGLISH -

1. Tuition for students enrolling for the first time in the first year of integrated academic studies of veterinary medicine in English is €5,000.00, payable in Serbian dinars at the exchange rate on the payment date.
2. Tuition for self-financed students in higher years of integrated studies in English is calculated by multiplying each credit point for newly enrolled subjects by €83.33 and each credit point for carried-over subjects by €50.00. This applies to all subjects and each academic year.
3. The total tuition can be paid in four installments. The first installment must be paid upon enrollment. The second installment must be paid before the exam registration period for the January exam session, the third before the April exam session, and the fourth before the June exam session of the 2025/2026 academic year. Payment receipts for the respective tuition installment must be submitted to the staff responsible for students studying in English.

4. During enrollment, students must provide proof of payment of a fee of 100 dinars to the Career Development Center (to be paid at the Faculty accounts sector). The fee amount may be adjusted in accordance with potential decisions by the University.
