INVITATION to the NEW VetNEST Summer School 2026

"Assistance Dogs -The Unknown Species (For Vets)"

Dear VetNEST colleagues and friends,

I am pleased to officially invite you to announce to your students the NEW VetNEST Summer School 2026 "Assistance Dogs -The Unknown Species (For Vets)" held for the first at the University of Veterinary Medicine, Vienna from 6– 10 September, 2026.

The idea for this new VetNEST Summer School was developed jointly with colleagues from the Veterinary Faculty of the University of Ljubljana.

We are looking for veterinary students with an interest in science, practice and ethics of working dogs.

Interested students should submit their applications until 15 June, 2026 at: <https://www.ceepus.info/>

There will be CEEPUS scholarships available for two¹ student participants from each VetNEST-Extended partner institution, to cover accommodation and travel costs.

I am looking forward to welcoming your students at Vetmeduni this summer.

Univ. Prof. DDr. Matthias Gauly
